Information you will receive

You will be provided with various documents that explain how our recommendations will work towards achieving your goals, the fee and potential conflicts that may exist that could influence the advice provided. These documents are designed to help you make informed decisions about our recommendations.

Statement of Advice

When we provide you with initial personal financial product advice you will receive a written Statement of Advice (SOA) that confirms the discussions you have had with us, the recommendations we are making and the basis for those recommendations. We retain these documents for seven years. You may request a copy of this advice or subsequent records of advice at any time.

Product Disclosure Statements

When a financial product is recommended to you, you will be provided with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or other disclosure document issued by the product provider. These documents contain information about the risks, benefits, features and fees payable for the product.

How are we paid for our services

Fees for advice

We may charge you fees for the preparation, presentation and implementation of our advice. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity involved in your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you.

We will discuss these fees with you and gain your agreement before we provide you with advice. These fees will also be documented in your Statement of Advice.

Payment methods

In most instances you will be able to select the method of payment. Our fees are either invoiced to you directly, or deducted from your investments or portfolio accounts at your direction, or a combination of both methods. We will discuss and agree the method of payment with you before we provide you with services.

All fees relating to the financial advice provide to you are payable to Merit Wealth and Merit Wealth then passes up to 100% of these fees onto us.

Other Benefits

We may accept alternative forms of remuneration from product or service providers, such as hospitality or support connected with our professional development (e.g. training or sponsorship to attend conferences). We maintain a register detailing any benefit that we receive which is valued at more than $300. A copy of the register is available on request.

In the event that our advice results in you establishing an SMSF and you request that we assist you with its ongoing requirements, we may charge additional fees each year to perform this work.

Any benefits that we receive that are relevant to your consideration of our advice to you will be disclosed in the Statement of Advice.

Referral Fees

If a client is referred to us we may pay the referrer a fee. We may also provide the referrer with thank you gifts such as branded promotional items, hampers, gift vouchers etc. We will record the details of any referral fees in the Statement of Advice we prepare for you. If we refer a client to another service provider they may pay us a referrer fee.

A fee may vary according to the referrer, the referee, the client and financial advice and products involved. The fee may be a percentage of fees or a flat fee. The fee may be paid upfront when a financial service or product is provided or periodically as ongoing fees.

Other payments received by Merit Wealth and associates

Merit Wealth, its associated entities and other authorised representatives of the Merit Wealth Australian Financial Services Licence, may receive other forms of fees, commissions and payments, one-off and ongoing, from financial product providers or other parties. None of these amounts are on-paid to us.
